Los Coyotes Indian Reservation, San Diego County– Winter Thunderstorm Flash Flood

On 04/11/16, the primary lifeline route in and out of Los Coyotes Indian Reservation was damaged by flash flooding. The roadway cracked above two culverts. The Cal OES Southern Region Tribal Point Liaison, Territory Representative, and SDO continue to monitor the incident.

- On Saturday, 05/14/16 at 1000 hours, a Recovery meeting will be held at the Los Coyotes Indian Reservation. Chairman Chapparosa is presenting information to the Tribal Council and is requesting agencies present for support. A Cal OES Southern Region representative will be attending the meeting.

Canal Breach, Clovis, Fresno County (New/Final)

- At approximately 0730 hours, Cal OES Inland Duty Officer advised that Fresno television station ABC 30 posted video on their website and through reporter's Twitter account with the headline "Canal Breach Causes Major Flooding in Clovis" (<http://abc30.com/news/canal-breach-causes-major-flooding-in-clovis/1334975>).
- Cal OES LDO reported that there were no evacuation orders in place and the roadways flooded were being mitigated by Clovis Public Works.
- Cal OES Inland Region Territorial Representative assigned to Fresno County reported that the area flooded is mainly orchards and there is no major flooding due to this incident. No resource requests or requests for assistance have been received from the Town of Clovis.
